

Requirements for Members Use of CWF Logo

Coastal Women's Forum members in good standing* who wish to recognize their membership in the CWF by including the CWF logo on a firm's website, business cards and in classified advertisements such as print/electronic promotion, are required to submit a written request to the CWF Board of Director's indicating what/where/how logo will be used and must agree to adhere to the following requirements.

The use of the Coastal Women's Forum logo will:

- Indicate individual membership only.
- Not be modified, manipulated, or changed in any way.
- Not incorporate CWF graphic design elements with any other logo (e.g., a firm logo).
- Will not imply CWF's endorsement of the individual member.

*Annual membership dues up-to-date

Upon Board review and approval of the submitted request for use of the CWF logo, I agree to follow and abide by the above requirements. As a member in good standing, if I allow my membership to lapse or I chose not to renew my membership, upon notice from the CWF Board of Directors, I agree to remove CWF logo from all documents, written, printed and electronic media, effective immediately.
